

TAMMANY BY 50,000; FOLEY LEADS TICKET

BROOKLYN GOES DEMOCRATIC BY 20,000 OR MORE.

Leader McCarren's Estimate Conservative—Clarke Runs Ahead of His Ticket—Independence League Polls About 25,000 in Borough.

James Gerard Makes Big Run All Judges Elected by Large Pluralities.

INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE POLLS 80,000 VOTES.

Whitman Runs Ahead of Ticket, But Hopelessly Beaten—General Sweep for the Tiger.

NEW SUPREME COURT JUDGE.

Jas. W. Gerard

Republicans who were sore at fusion stood for him and voted against his associates on the judicial ticket.

Tammany Hall never took a victory so much to heart. The wigwag was a scene of delirious joy as night fell. Charles F. Murphy was all smiles.

CHEERS FOR FOLEY.

Foley appeared at the wigwag shortly after 1 o'clock and got a reception that brought the tears to his eyes. Other successful candidates followed him, and there was a great love feast all around.

Republican headquarters was practically deserted. Mr. Parsons was left alone with his reflections. Independence League leaders could utter nothing but "Fraud."

The crowds that gathered in front of the newspaper bulletin boards were surprisingly large in the light of the general apathy that reigned during the campaign. The throng in front of the Pulitzer Building was apparently in full sympathy with the returns. Every bulletin that told of the big vote for Tom Foley or the steady Tammany gains was greeted with cheers and blowing of horns that rattled the windows in the surrounding skyscrapers.

The anti-Tammany Republican leaders, who were against an alliance with Hearst, received the returns at the Republican Club. Their favorite expression was, "I told you so."

GUILD CARRIES MASSACHUSETTS BY BIGGER VOTE

Republicans Get Boston for the State Ticket Easily.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 5.—Gov. Guild is re-elected by a big plurality over Henry H. Whitney, the Democratic candidate and Hilsen, who ran on the Independence League ticket. The Republicans also carried Boston for the State ticket.

Out of 26 precincts of Boston returns from 25 precincts out of 194 in Louisville show Tyler, Democratic candidate for Mayor, leading Grinshead, Republican, by 29 votes.

ALBANY, Nov. 5.—Nearly all the State offices were closed to-day, the greater number of officials and attaches going home to vote.

Gov. Hughes left for New York at 8:30 A. M. to cast his vote.

ANTI-MORMONS STRONG IN SALT LAKE ELECTION.

run by 4,000 and the remainder of the State by 6,000. One hundred and ninety towns gave Harrison, 1,330; Guild, 4,430; Hilsen, 11,370; Whitney, 22,225. Last year the same towns gave Guild 51,334; Moran, 25,000. The estimated total vote of Boston was: Guild, 21,000; Whitney, Democrat, 21,300; Hilsen, Independent, 12,500; Bartlett, anti-fusion, 1,400. Guild's indicated plurality is 4,000.

Moran, Independence League, is re-elected District Attorney of Suffolk County.

JOHNSON IN TIGHT BATTLE AT CLEVELAND.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 5.—Sixty-three precincts give a return of votes for the Mayoralty as follows: Johnson, 12,330; Burton, 12,070.

This shows a loss by Johnson of 23 to a precinct from earlier returns. Burton must gain 25 to a precinct among those yet to be heard from in order to win.

CLOSE CONTEST FOR LOUISVILLE MAYORALTY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—Returns from 25 precincts out of 194 in Louisville show Tyler, Democratic candidate for Mayor, leading Grinshead, Republican, by 29 votes.

ALBANY, Nov. 5.—Nearly all the State offices were closed to-day, the greater number of officials and attaches going home to vote.

Gov. Hughes left for New York at 8:30 A. M. to cast his vote.

DEMOCRATS FAR AHEAD IN NEW JERSEY

Returns So Far Received Indicate the Election of Katzenbach.

The latest reports indicate a Democratic victory in the State of New Jersey. Col. Katzenbach, the Democratic candidate, was very strong in the cities. His managers claim a substantial plurality.

In Jersey City the election of Whitman, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, is claimed by over 6,000 over Fagan. Katzenbach ran up with Wiggin in the vote in Jersey City.

Early returns indicate that Katzenbach has carried Trenton by 1,000 plurality. The only return received from the country districts was from Meriden, where Katzenbach received 137 votes and Fort 181.

Six precincts in Jersey City out of 98 give for Mayor Fagan 51; Whitman, 65.

HIGGINS IN RHODE ISLAND FIGHTS FOR SECOND TERM.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 5.—A clear, crisp day greeted the voters of Rhode Island when the polls opened about 10 o'clock to-day. The election was unusually large. The outcome of the election is being watched with great interest, inasmuch as the next Legislature will vote for United States Senator from this State.

The contest for Governor is centered around the present holder of that office, James H. Higgins, of Pawtucket, and Gov. Frederick H. Jackson, of Pawtucket, the Republican candidate.

SOMEBODY STOLE THE LICENSE BALLOTS.

WILMINGTON, N. Y., Nov. 5.—In Kanona, a small town near Bath, a fierce fight is being waged over the license question. Some one broke into the voting booth last night and stole all the license ballots. This morning it was impossible to vote on the question, but toward noon new ballots were provided. Each side accuses the other of the theft, in the hope of invalidating the election.

TAYLOR CLAIMS ELECTION AS MAYOR OF 'FRISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—The Mayorial contest here was hot and bitter until the closing of the polls to-day. All the candidates had a ferment of workers busy until the last moment, and the result was a heavy vote. Taylor, the present Mayor, claims his election by a plurality of about 5,000. The vote, as figured by political experts, is as follows: Taylor (Dem. and Good Government), 23,000; McCarthy (Union Labor), 17,000; Ryan (Rep.), 11,000; Regan (Socialist), 3,000.

WET AND DRY STRUGGLE IS ON IN DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 5.—Polls for the local option election in this State opened shortly after 8 A. M. to-day and voting began in a manner which brought a large majority of the vote in by noon. The weather is clear. The voting is by districts, of which there are four in the State. Interest continues to run high, both the wet and dry being confident to win. The license leaders display an assurance which will not listen to the probability of defeat in the city, which seems to be one of the four districts.

HOW THEY VOTED IN THE CITIES UP THE STATE

Rochester Elects a Republican Mayor—Rome Doubles Its Democratic Plurality.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Hiram Fitzgerald, Republican, was elected Mayor to-day over William Ward by a majority of 900. The Republicans apparently elect all five Assemblymen in Monroe County.

ROME DOUBLES ITS DEMOCRATIC VERDICT.

ROME, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Hon. Albert H. Koenig, Democrat, is re-elected Mayor of Rome by a plurality of 512 over C. E. Edwards, Republican.

Mr. Koenig's plurality two years ago was 150.

SCHENECTADY GIVES REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Miles H. Frisbie, Republican, re-elected member of Assembly by a large majority.

Horace S. Van Vleet, Republican, was elected Mayor of Schenectady by a plurality of about 900.

REPUBLICANS ELECT NOMINEES IN UTICA.

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Utica went Republican upon all offices. Thomas Wheeler was elected Mayor by 1,327 plurality. The Common Council will be Democratic by one majority.

SYRACUSE REPUBLICAN BY A PLURALITY OF 3,000.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Allen C. Forbes, Republican, was re-elected Mayor to-day over the Democratic nominee, Alderman Frank A. Matty, by a plurality of about 3,000. The entire Republican ticket was apparently elected.

SOLID REPUBLICAN VOTE IN SUFFOLK COUNTY.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., Nov. 5.—There is no special interest in the election in Suffolk County where a light vote is being polled. Suffolk is a strong Republican county and though there is lack of interest the Republicans will undoubtedly elect two Assemblymen and the county ticket.

OSWEGO'S MAYOR RE-ELECTED.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 5.—John K. Smith, Republican, was re-elected Mayor to-day over William Quigley, the Citizens' Independent-Democratic candidate, by about 350 majority.

WATERTOWN REPUBLICAN.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Hugo, Republican, was re-elected Mayor of this city over York, Democrat, by a majority of 1,184.

PLATT'S TOWN DEMOCRATIC.

WAVERLY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Frank L. Howard (R), elected to the Assembly in Fulton County where a light vote is being polled. Platt's town, goes Democratic by 154.

BATAVIA IS LOYAL.

BATAVIA, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Fred B. Parker, Republican, has been re-elected to the Assembly.

TROY AGAIN REPUBLICAN.

TROY, Nov. 5.—First District, Rensselaer County Assembly, F. C. Felt, Republican, was re-elected.

Senator P. H. McCarren claims Brooklyn for the regular Democracy by 20,000, an estimate that seems conservative in the face of the latest returns.

The election to the Court of Appeals, never in doubt, through their places on the ballot, is conceded to the two Bartletts.

Ketchum is elected Surrogate, in uniformity with the running of the ticket, which is likely to exceed the total placed upon it in the estimate of McCarren.

John F. Clarke is re-elected District Attorney of Kings County, with the honor of running away ahead of the regular ticket. His plurality will probably exceed 30,000.

The election of Somers as Sheriff of Kings County is admitted by his opponents.

The total vote of the Independence League in the county is liberally estimated as between 25,000 and 30,000, with the chances in favor of the lesser number.

Brooklyn kept pace with the general result in Manhattan so far as those candidates were concerned in which both boroughs were interested. The only difference was due to local and personal preferences.

The election of the Bartletts was beyond doubt early in the count of ballots. John F. Clarke, candidate for re-election as District Attorney, ran ahead of his ticket, with indications from the Independence League in the Shreveley race.

Republican Second, Bradford R. Lansing, Republican, elected. Elias P. Mann, Republican, was re-elected Mayor, defeating W. M. Keenan, Democrat, by over 400. The entire Republican city and county ticket was elected by substantial majorities.

POUGHKEEPSIE DEMOCRATIC.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Nov. 5.—The Democrats carried this city by about 800 majority, electing five of the seven Assemblymen, and the same number of Supervisors.

GLOVERSVILLE ALL G.O.'S.

GLOVERSVILLE, Nov. 5.—Frederick M. Young (Rep.) was elected Mayor by a plurality of 5. With this exception, the Republican city ticket was elected.

JOHNSTOWN'S CLOSE VOTE.

JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 5.—Dr. Frank Bebe (Dem.) was elected Mayor of this city over William T. Dovey (Rep.) by a plurality of 5. With this exception, the Republican city ticket was elected.

ITHACA CLOSELY DEMOCRATIC.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Though the city went Democratic by eleven votes for the head of the local ticket, W. R. Gundersman, Republican, for the Assembly, carried the city by 27 votes and in Tompkins County his election seems certain.

KORNIC AUBURN'S MAYOR.

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Frederick A. Dudley, elected Assemblyman, A. Koenig, Democrat, elected Mayor, after anti-alcohol league campaign. Seven out of ten Aldermen Democratic.

ALBANY Mayor's Fourth Term.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—Charles H. Gaus (Rep.) is re-elected Mayor for a fourth consecutive term by a plurality of about 1,000. Early returns indicate as certain the election of Eliza J. Staley, William B. Nolan and Robert B. Waters, all Republicans, for Assembly in the three districts of Albany County.

Wilmington Going Wet.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 5.—Thirty-four districts out of eighty-nine in Wilmington show the vote for license 1,350, against 1,184.

Tammany Hall made a clean sweep from the Battery to the Yonkers line to-day, electing the entire ticket by great pluralities.

Thomas F. Foley, upon whom the Republican-Independence League fusion forces bent their bitterest attacks, ran ahead of his ticket.

James W. Gerard, Tammany candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court, smothered his Fusion opponent, M. Linn Bruce. Judge Charles Whitman, a Fusion candidate for the Court of General Sessions bench, ran slightly ahead of his ticket.

It was an old-fashioned landslide in Manhattan. The result was plain half an hour after the polls closed. It was seen that Tammany had scooped up everything in sight, and it soon became plain that "Big Tom" Foley was going to achieve a tremendous victory.

His great vote came from all over the county. In sections of Manhattan where he was not well known he ran ahead as well as in the portions where the people knew him well.

LEAGUE VOTE FALLS OFF.

The full strength of the Independence League in the city of New York was shown in the vote of Lyon and McDonough for the Court of Appeals bench. They polled about 80,000 votes in the greater city against the two Bartletts. Two years ago, when Mr. Hearst ran for Mayor he polled 225,165 votes.

Edward T. Bartlett and Willard Bartlett, the joint Republican and Democratic nominees for the Court of Appeals, will probably carry New York County by 80,000 plurality.

James W. Gerard, Democratic candidate for the Supreme Court, has probably beaten Linn Bruce, the fusion nominee, by 50,000 plurality.

Thomas F. Foley made a remarkable run, heading the rest of his ticket all over the county, and will probably have a plurality over Ihmsen, the fusion candidate for Sheriff, of about 55,000. Over one-half of the county heard from.

The forecasted landslide for Judge Whitman, of the Fusion slate for Judge of the Court of General Sessions, did not materialize, although he ran ahead of his ticket. The plurality of each of the Tammany candidates, Edward Swann, Joseph Mulqueen and James T. Malone, will probably be about 50,000.

Tammany has elected all the Municipal Court Justices by substantial majorities. The Tammany representation in the Board of Aldermen was substantially increased, and in the Assembly Tammany will have the usual number of representatives.

The Bronx went Democratic by a substantial majority. Thirty districts in the early returns gave Gerard 5,400 votes, to 4,211 for Bruce.

RAISED CRY OF "FRAUD."

Herbert Parsons, the Chairman of the Republican County Committee, who thought that an alliance with Hearst would pull his ticket through, took his defeat gracefully and early. The Independence League people began to cry "Fraud!" at noon. By nightfall the cry had assumed the proportions of a shriek.

After the polls closed Max Ihmsen, the defeated candidate for Sheriff, telephoned to Gov. Hughes that the Independence League watchers were being terrorized and asked for help. Commissioner Bingham was also appealed to. The Independence Leaguers were knocked off their balance by the whirlwind of votes for Foley. Republicans all over the city cut their fusion ticket unmercifully. Especially did they assassinate the name of Maximilian F. Ihmsen.

WHITMAN RUNS AHEAD.

The Democratic candidates for the Court of General Sessions bench ran pretty close up to the vote of James W. Gerard for the Supreme Court. Judge Whitman's tremendous strength on the east side did not reflect itself in the ballot boxes. He ran ahead of his ticket about to the extent that OTSEGO BAY, Nov. 5.—The vote of the town of Otsego Bay was light, and many Republicans apparently remained away from the polls.

In the Fifth Election District, which is President Roosevelt's voting district, the Republican candidates received reduced majorities.
